San Diego – The Old Globe is thrilled to announce that the Theatre's acclaimed world-premiere musical, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels, received eleven Tony Award nominations for 2005. The nominations were announced this morning at the Marriott Marquis Hotel in Midtown Manhattan. In addition to Best Musical, the production garnered nominations for Globe Artistic Director Jack O'Brien for Best Direction of a Musical, Jeffrey Lane for Best Book of a Musical, David Yazbek for Best Original Score (also nominated for the Globe's production of The Full Monty in 2000), Jerry Mitchell for Best Choreography, Norbert Leo Butz and John Lithgow for Best Actor in a Musical, Sherie Rene Scott for Best Actress in a Musical, Joanna Gleason for Best Featured Actress in a Musical, Kenneth Posner for Best Lighting Design of a Musical, and Harold Wheeler for Best Orchestrations. The 2005 awards ceremony will be broadcast on CBS on Sunday, June 5.

This nomination represents O'Brien's third consecutive nomination (the seventh nomination of his career), having been nominated for (and won) the Tony in 2004 for his direction of the acclaimed Lincoln Center production of Henry IV and in 2003 for the mega-hit musical Hairspray. Dirty Rotten Scoundrels played to sold-out audiences at the Globe during the Fall of 2004 and opened at Broadway's Imperial Theatre on March 3, 2005. The show reunited the creative team of Jack O'Brien, Jerry Mitchell and David Yazbek from the Globe's award-winning production of The Full Monty (2000).

Based on the popular 1988 film, Dirty Rotten Scoundrels centers on two con men living in the French Riviera. The first, a small-time crook named Freddy Benson, swindles women by wakening their compassion with fabricated stories about his grandmother's failing health. The other is suave, sophisticated con artist Lawrence Jameson, who also makes his living by talking rich ladies out of their money, but on a much grander scale. After meeting on a train, they unsuccessfully attempt to work together only to find that this small French town isn't big enough for the two of them. They agree on a settlement: the first one to extract $50,000 from a young female target wins, and the other must leave town. A hilarious battle of cons ensues, bringing out the best and worst in each man, along with a fun, unexpected twist that will keep audiences laughing, humming and guessing to the end!
